PEACEMAKER

by David Holman

JIGSAW THEATRE COMPANY offers a colourful and energetic play for Primary Schools in 3rd Term.

The Play PEACEMAKER is about the mythical world of the REDS and the BLUES divided by a mysterious wall. The larger-than-life characters inhabiting this world have been greatly influenced by stories about the "OTHER SIDE." Whilst practising their juggling for the carnival, the REDS inadvertently make contact with a BLUE. The subsequent surprises and visual delights take the audience on a stimulating journey of conflict and an ultimately peaceful resolution.

PEACEMAKER, written and first produced in London in 1984, is good, well constructed theatre. It is humorous, entertaining, joyous, sad, educational and easily able to engage an audience of young people.

Where & When At your school. Available from Tuesday 6th October 1987. Preferred performance times are 10 am or 1.30 pm. Jigsaw will need a performance space 4 x 4 metres and access 1 hour before the performance.
